

'The following names appeared on the Power 100 list between 2007 and 2016. The list is ranked, with one being the highest and one hundred being the lowest ranking. It's published each year by ArtReview Magazine. Because the following names are compiled from several different Power 100 lists it should be thought of as a meta list. Since 2011 I have had myself paged along with some of those whose names appear on the list on public address systems at various airports, art fairs, train stations, museums and department stores.' – Bill Burns
