[theatro] is a rhythmical reading experience, a 5,5 meters long transcript of a seminar performance, reflecting it's original pulse and duration. [theatro] expands on the notion of 'view' ('thea' in Greek, where the word 'theatre' comes from). The word 'view' is also the root of the word 'theory' [coming from the junction of the words 'thea'(=view) and 'oro'(=to perceive)]. Aiming towards theory as practice, [theatro] is a new work of Lalou in the form of a book written in two languages Greek and English.
